OTHER NEWS AND VIEWS

Just a quick word on the October 7th meeting, a few months ago, Ken discussed the various denominations of Christianity, careful to point out that each branch of the faith finds certainty in its own beliefs. In that same vein, there are different schools of ethical thought and Ken would like to explore, with you, the various answers to the question: How does a person decide what's right and what's wrong?

No meeting was held on Monday September 2nd in honor of Labor Day.

Our monthly Board meeting was conducted on September 9th. Minutes of that meeting have been distributed to club members. A total of $59 was collected in support of the Oxcart Food Pantry. For the 2018-2019 Kiwanis year, this brings the grand total donated to $835. Well done!

Laurette Tully attended the monthly Aktion Club meeting at Porter Library on September 11th and reported that they are anxious to help the North Olmsted club whenever possible.

Speaking of Laurette, she was supposed to part of the North Olmsted foursome competing in the Division 14 golf outing on September 16th. Her partners were Gretchen Schuler, Don Machovina, and Howard Luke. When they arrived at the Oberlin course, however, they found they were not registered through no fault of their own. Gretchen went back to work while Laurette, Howard, and Don got in nine holes at another local course.

Back in North Olmsted, the meeting on September 16th was devoted to the Scholarship Foundation with Walt Spalding at the helm. It was decided that the club would continue its present practice of awarding $20,000 in scholarships from its investment accounts. In addition, scholarships would be offered beyond that figure, such as money from the Fat Head's 5K and the generous donation of Gene Shook's family. It was also brought up the if the club sponsors a fund-raiser and advertises it as scholarship related event, any money raised from it should go directly to the Scholarship Foundation.

On the morning of September 19th, Ken Neuzil and Stan Ball attended the Key Club meeting at the high school. The kids in the club are excited about the upcoming Pumpkinville and together with members of the SITES class have been signing up to volunteer. Afterward, Stan and Ken enjoyed breakfast at Canary's.

Later that evening, Frank Miller and Laurette Tully attended the Division 14 meeting at Porter Library. The first order of business was an apology from the division for the botched reservation for the golf outing.

For our September 23rd meeting, members heard from Paula Kramer and Jo Ann Bartsch about butterfly gardening! With an interesting slide show, they discussed how vital butterflies are in the pollination of our local plants and how their habitat has been shrinking due to developments in housing, pesticides, and businesses. They provided a hand-out with ten types of butterflies and the ten types of plants each needs for nutrition and reproduction. Thank you Paula and Jo Ann for a very interesting evening!

Pumpkinville 2019 was held on September 29th at the Frostville Historical site. Members of the Kiwanis club roasted more than 300 ears of fresh corn to the delight of the large crowd. We also enlisted the help of the NOHS Key Club and SITES program to help at many areas of the festival. Thank you Stan Ball, John Biss, Dave Dillon, Terry and Wanda Groden, Duane Limpert, Howard Luke, Terry Smith, and Laurette Tully for working through smoke-filled eyes and burnt fingers as "corn roasters" and the all the high school kids who made the day a special one for younger children.

Everyone enjoyed the Pumpkinville treats!!

Our final meeting of the month was actually more of a clam-bake than a meeting; in fact, it was all about the clam-bake. Fifty people enjoyed Mae O'Grady's delicious meal, which consisted of clam chowder and mussels as appetizers, a dozen clams, a half chicken, baked yam, rolls, and dessert.

Once again, well done, Mae!

AND FINALLY.....

From Laurette Tully:

- ◇ Wife: So, how was your golf game today?
- ◇ Husband: Oh, okay, but Fred had a heart attack and died on the third hole.
- ◇ Wife: Oh, my God, that's terrible!
- ◇ Husband: Yeah, for the next thirteen holes it was hit the ball, drag Fred!
- ◇ From the internet:
- ◇ When I'm feeling down and someone says, "Suck it up!" I get the urge to break their legs and say, "Walk it off."
- ◇ I will always be there for you. Through thick and thin. Ups and downs. Richer or poorer. As soon as I finish my coffee.
- ◇ I started out with nothing and I still have most of it.
- ◇ My trust issues started when my mom said, "Come here, I'm not gonna hit you."
- ◇ Husband: Why do you keep buying plants when you just end up killing them?
Wife: Just to remind you what I'm capable of.
- ◇ I hate it when people act all intellectual and talk about Mozart while they've never even seen one of his paintings!

- ◇ I feel bad for kids today with all their electronic gadgets; they'll never know the simple joy of throwing rocks at each other.
- ◇ Being kissed while you are asleep is one of the purest forms of love...Unless you are in prison.
- ◇ My biology teacher asked what the function of carbohydrates were, but apparently "filling the deep well of sadness inside of me" was incorrect.
- ◇ My wife asked me what I'm doing today. I said nothing. She said but you did that yesterday. I said I know, but I didn't finish. I really like retirement!
- ◇ When you are dead, you don't know that you are dead. It is difficult only for the others. It is the same when you are stupid.
- ◇ Dear Algebra, please stop trying to find X. She's never coming back, don't ask Y.
- ◇ I'm at that age where my mind stills thinks I'm 29, my humor suggests I'm 12, while my body keeps asking if I'm sure I'm not dead yet.
- ◇ You cannot lose weight on a starvation diet. I went 30, 40 minutes...nothing'

These are from a book called Disorder in the American Courts and are things people actually said in court, word for word, taken down and published by court reporters that had the torment of staying calm while the exchanges were taking place.

- ◇ ATTORNEY: What was the first thing your husband said to you that morning?
WITNESS: He said, 'Where am I, Cathy? AT-TORNEY: And why did that upset you?
WITNESS: My name is Susan!
- ◇ ATTORNEY: What gear were you in at the moment of the impact?
WITNESS: Gucci sweats and Reeboks.
- ◇ ATTORNEY: Are you sexually active?
WITNESS: No, I just lie there.
- ◇ ATTORNEY: What is your date of birth?
WITNESS: July 18th.
ATTORNEY: What year?
WITNESS: Every year.

- ◇ ATTORNEY: How old is your son, the one living with you?
WITNESS: Thirty-eight or thirty-five, I can't remember which.
ATTORNEY: How long has he lived with you?
WITNESS: Forty-five years.
- ◇ ATTORNEY: This myasthenia gravis, does it affect your memory at all?
WITNESS: Yes.
ATTORNEY: And in what ways does it affect your memory?
WITNESS: I forget..
ATTORNEY: You forget? Can you give us an example of something you forgot?
- ◇ ATTORNEY: Now doctor, isn't it true that when a person dies in his sleep, he doesn't know about it until the next morning?
WITNESS: Did you actually pass the bar exam?
- ◇ ATTORNEY: The youngest son, the 20-year-old, how old is he?
WITNESS: He's 20, much like your IQ.
- ◇ ATTORNEY: Were you present when your picture was taken?
WITNESS: Are you shitting me?
- ◇ ATTORNEY: So the date of conception (of the baby) was August 8th?
WITNESS: Yes.
ATTORNEY: And what were you doing at that time?
WITNESS: Getting laid
- ◇ ATTORNEY: She had three children , right?
WITNESS: Yes.
ATTORNEY: How many were boys?
WITNESS: None.
ATTORNEY: Were there any girls?
WITNESS: Your Honor, I think I need a different attorney. Can I get a new attorney?
- ◇ ATTORNEY: How was your first marriage terminated?
WITNESS: By death..
ATTORNEY: And by whose death was it terminated?
WITNESS: Take a guess.
- ◇ ATTORNEY: Can you describe the individual?
WITNESS: He was about medium height and had a beard
ATTORNEY: Was this a male or a female?
WITNESS: Unless the Circus was in town I'm going with male.

◇ ATTORNEY: Is your appearance here this morning pursuant to a deposition notice which I sent to your attorney?

WITNESS: No, this is how I dress when I go to work.

◇ ATTORNEY: Doctor, how many of your autopsies have you performed on dead people?

WITNESS: All of them. The live ones put up too much of a fight.

◇ ATTORNEY: ALL your responses MUST be oral, OK? What school did you go to?

WITNESS: Oral...

◇ ATTORNEY: Do you recall the time that you examined the body?

WITNESS: The autopsy started around 8:30 PM

ATTORNEY: And Mr. Denton was dead at the time?

WITNESS: If not, he was by the time I finished.

ATTORNEY: Doctor, before you performed the autopsy, did you check for a pulse?

WITNESS: No.

ATTORNEY: Did you check for blood pressure?

WITNESS: No.

ATTORNEY: Did you check for breathing?

WITNESS: No..

ATTORNEY: So, then it is possible that the patient was alive when you began the autopsy?

WITNESS: No.

ATTORNEY: How can you be so sure, Doctor?

WITNESS: Because his brain was sitting on my desk in a jar.

ATTORNEY: I see, but could the patient have still been alive, nevertheless?

WITNESS: Yes, it is possible that he could have been alive and practicing law..
